

SUPPORT ASPIRING PRODUCT MANAGERS!

ProductVision Boston University

ProductVision is Boston University's premier career-oriented, professional organization for aspiring Product Managers.

We aim to inspire the next generation of Product Managers at BU and hope to provide students of all academic backgrounds with the opportunity to expand their product tools and skill set.

Our members major in Computer Science, Engineering, Business, Design, and many more!

Your generous donation will allow ProductVision to offer top-notch events, workshops, PM books, club swag, and much more to our members!
